

ANTI-RAGGING SQUAD / CELL

An Anti-Ragging Squad / Cell, chaired by the Principal, has been constituted to prevent ragging and to foster a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment. The college maintains a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging in any form, recognizing its harmful impact on students' dignity, well-being, and academic life. To ensure a secure atmosphere for all learners, the following measures have been implemented:

- Installation of CCTV cameras at strategic locations across the campus.
- Prominent display of notices highlighting the legal consequences of ragging.
- Display of names and contact details of Anti-Ragging Squad / Cell members at key points.
- Regular counseling and awareness sessions conducted for students.
- Mandatory submission of anti-ragging undertakings by students and parents at the time of admission, acknowledging that ragging is a punishable offence under law.
- Wide publicity of the National Anti-Ragging Helpline for immediate assistance and grievance redressal.

The institution remains committed to safeguarding students' rights and promoting a culture of mutual respect and responsibility.

National Anti-Ragging Helpline

Toll-free number: 1800-180-5522

Email: helpline@antiragging.in

Supervising body: University Grants Commission (UGC)

Website: www.antiragging.in

Chairperson	Prof, Sangeeta Jhagta (Principal)	9418191381
Convener	Sh. Ved Prakash (Assistant Professor)	82192110352
Co-Convener	Sh. Vijay Kumar (Assistant Librarian)	8219131275